Dr. Dagmar Pruin is the Executive Director of Aktion Sühnezeichen Friedensdienste and Director of Germany Close Up, which she founded in the Fall of 2007. Dr. Pruin studied Theology and Jewish Studies at the Universities of Hamburg, the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, Göttingen (MDiv equivalent 1997) and the Humboldt-University of Berlin, where she worked as a research and teaching fellow and earned her PhD in Hebrew Bible in 2003. Her academic career includes visiting fellowships at the University of Stellenbosch in South Africa (2004) and at the AICGS-The Johns Hopkins University (2006) and she is an ordained Minister of the Protestant Church.