Originally from Berlin, Germany, where she was born on the Eastern side when the wall was still standing, Katharina von Münster is today the Communications Director at Action Reconciliation Service for Peace in the United States, a German non-profit organization that is dedicated to German-Jewish dialogue and works towards peace and reconciliation in 13 countries. Prior to coming to the United States, Ms. von Münster ran the Israel office of Action Reconciliation Service for Peace for six years. In her youth, she worked for a year as a volunteer on a Kibbutz in Israel. Ms. von Münster holds a Diploma of Political Science and in addition to being active in the non-profit field for many years she has also worked as a journalist. On the occasion of the 50th anniversary of German-Israeli diplomatic relations, Ms. von Münster was honored in New York by the Consuls General and the Permanent Representatives to the UN of Germany and Israel for her contributions to German-Israeli relations.
